FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The MOROCCAN AMERICAN COMMUNITY CENTER 2009 ANNUAL CONVENTION

Washington DC, June 26th, 2009 — The Moroccan American Community Center announced that it will hold it's Annual Convention in Orlando Florida on October 24th to 25th, 2009.

Over 1000 community members representing 32 states across the USA will participate in this unprecedented 2-days event in addition to 15 dignitaries, industry and community leaders.

The MACC 09 Convention will showcase 20 Exhibits on trade, real state, investments, banking and tourism. The event will also host for the first time in the USA, the Sahara Day, a cultural showcase about the Moroccan Sahara, it's people, music and tradition.

As part of the 2 days program, the Moroccan Consulate in New York will establish it's mobile office in the MACC Convention to provide Moroccans residing in the USA a full range of administrative services.

The convention will also host on the evening of the 24th, the Bladi Award ceremony to recognize active community members in the fields of Academic Research, Business, Arts and Social Work.

"It is our pleasure to build a bridge between Morocco and the USA. The MACC convention in Orlando will mark a new day for our community. It is our objective to showcase Morocco; it's industry, tourism and services to Americans who are interested in exploring what this rich land has to offer." Said Driss R. Tamsamani, Founder of the Moroccan American Community Center.

"In Celebration of the Washington Moroccan Club 20th Anniversary, it is a unique opportunity to partner with the Moroccan American Community Center in this annual convention to be held in Orlando. As Morocco marks it's new footprint in the World under the leadership of his Majesty the King Mohammed VI, we are pleased to bring together a world-class event, the Sahara Day, to the American community." Commented Hassan Samrhouni President of the Washington Moroccan Club.
